PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

- Need internet access in a far location but experiencing weak WiFi signals or instability?
- This 10-meter Ethernet cable provides a strong and stable wired connection for reliable internet performance across long distances.
- Ideal for offices, homes, gaming setups, and workstations where devices are far from the router.
- Ensures consistent speed with reduced latency compared to wireless connections.
- Perfect for professional environments that require uninterrupted network performance.
- Limitation: Internet speed still depends on your service provider package.

☐ Best For

- Large home or office setups
- Gaming stations requiring stable ping
- Streaming and heavy downloads
- Router to distant device connections
- Business and professional networking
